Understanding the Construction Contracts Act 2002 - Online Zoom

The Construction Contracts Act 2002 applies to all construction contracts that relate to the carrying out of construction work in New Zealand, whether the contract is in writing, oral, or a mixture of both, and whether it is for commercial or residential construction. This course is delivered as a live on-line zoom session with our trainer and other participants.

This course, from a practical and 'hands-on' point of view, will benefit Clients, Consultants and Contractors wanting to understand the key provisions of this Act, and how it applies to them.

It has four key objectives:

- To protect retention money withheld under commercial construction contracts
- To help ensure a fair, balanced and appropriate payment regime
- To provide a fast and cost-effective adjudication process for people with disputes
- To provide enforcement mechanisms to recover any unmade payments

Topics include

- Key content of the Construction Contracts Act 2002 (CCA)
- What this means in real life
- How to submit payment claims under the Act
- The Adjudication process

On completion of this course participants will

- Use course notes as an up to date reference on the CCA
- Be familiar with the key provisions of the Act
- How to use the CCA to get paid

Who should attend

Contract and Project Managers, supervisors, engineers'/contractors' representatives, as well as experienced personnel wishing to improve their skills.

Participants must have

Each person must have a computer or laptop with camera and internet access to enable this Zoom training.
