Do you understand the different requirements for remedying defects under NZS3917: 2013 (Fixed Term)? Or for the Programme? Or for insurance? Or for the Contract Works Period?

These are just some examples of the differences from NZS3910:2013.

This course, from a practical and 'hands-on' point of view, will benefit Clients, Consultants and Contractors wanting to know the differences between this standard and NZS3910, the General Conditions of Contract.

This course is designed for people who are already familiar with NZS3910:2013.

Topics include

- Overview of NZS3917
- Points of difference from NZS3910

On completion of this course participants will

- Understand the key differences between NZS3910:2013 and NZS3917:2013
- Use course notes as the key texts in NZS3917 which are different

Who should attend

Contract and Project Managers, supervisors, engineers'/contractors' representatives, as well as experienced personnel wishing to understand the key differences between NZS3910:2013 and NZS3917
