

New Zealand Certificate in Skills for Living for Supported Learning (Level 1)

This course enables students to learn life skills and work skills in a supported learning environment in a way that suits their individual needs. Students will have increased confidence and self-esteem and an understanding of their own strengths and weaknesses both in social and work environments.

Students will learn how to:

- Demonstrating self-management of day to day living situations
- Maintaining personal safety health and well-being
- Participating and interacting in everyday situations.
- Participating in planning a future pathway to achieve personal goals.
- Apply problem-solving strategies to resolve day to day issues
- Applying literacy and numeracy skills required for day to day living

Programme Specific Information

- This qualification is an entry level qualification intended for people who require specialised support with their learning. They are people with learning disabilities, including those with an intellectual disability.
- Graduates will be able to self-manage participation in social, cultural, family/whanau and community contexts, with supervision and/or be encouraged to seek further skills and knowledge to improve their educational and employment pathway.
- This qualification recognises the aspirations and cultural identities of the disabled communities, and that of Māori and Pasifika.
- This qualification allows the Aotearoa New Zealand community, employers and educational institutions to recognise the graduate's potential to enhance their participation in the community, as a contributing citizen.

Programme Fees and Additional Expenses

Programme Fees

Domestic $Fees Free

0800 948 869

www.witt.ac.nz